FOREWORD BY MARGARET B. DREW

In blessed memory of Jeremiah B. McKenna—Chief Counsel to the New York State Senate Committee on Crime and Correction and Executive Director of the Policy Sciences Center at Yale Law School—the first champion of the protective mother and the first legislative counsel to write an extensive memorandum of law on the injustices of the family courts and on the corrupt practices of child welfare agencies in a Brooklyn Orthodox Jewish case that would later become a national cause célèbre, and be profiled in The Jewish Standard, The Jewish Press, The Jewish Link, and in Jewish Life Magazine. We also dedicate this book to protective mothers across the nation and to the tireless advocates that support them.
